BizSpark Graduation – Guidelines

As you near Graduation from the BizSpark program your BizSpark Administrator will receive emails from Microsoft with specific information about the BizSpark Graduation offer. The information provided about the offer is time-sensitive.

If your Startup has servers in production, by completing the BizSpark Graduation process your Startup can get a BizSpark Graduation License Grant to continue to use:

- 8 licenses for Windows Server Standard Edition Core ("Per Core" license)*
- 2 licenses for SQL Server Standard Edition Core ("Per Core" license)*

NOTE: Visual Studio Subscriptions purchased post-graduation DO NOT include rights to use server software in production (in a live operating environment); such rights are only available through the BizSpark program so you must complete the BizSpark Graduation process to receive the BizSpark Graduation License Grant to maintain those server usage rights.

Visual Studio 2013 and later requires a sign-in using a Microsoft account associated with an active Visual Studio Subscription. If you are using Visual Studio 2013 or later, your subscription expires upon BizSpark graduation. To continue using Visual Studio, your Startup will need to purchase a Visual Studio subscription for each authorized user running Visual Studio after the Startups' BizSpark graduation.

Additionally, if you are using your BizSpark $150/month Azure benefit, this program benefit will end on your date of graduation and is not included in your license. If you wish to continue using Azure at the standard Pay-As-You-Go rates after this date, you will need to ensure that your account has a valid credit card on file in the Azure Portal and that you remove your spending limit.

By completing the BizSpark Graduation process you will receive A license grant from Microsoft that provides you with perpetual use rights for certain server product versions that the startup downloaded while in the BizSpark program. (please note you have ninety (90) days to take advantage of the BizSpark Graduation offers.
